Attending SDSU-Ivy was both professionally and personally rewarding.

BY RENATO MONTOLEO

Renato Montoleo has served as an administrator for the San Diego State University (SDSU) since the fall of 2010. Montoleo has held several positions at SDSU, including assistant provost and director of the Center for Community Engagement (CCE). He is currently the director of the CCE.

Montoleo has been at SDSU for more than a decade, working in various capacities. He has served as an administrator for the CCE and as an associate provost for the CCE. He is also a member of the SDSU Board of Trustees.

Montoleo is a native of Italy and came to the United States to pursue a degree in business administration. He earned his doctorate from SDSU in 2010.

Montoleo is passionate about higher education and its role in fostering social and economic development.

SDSU-Ivy is a challenging and invigorating experience that prepares students for success in the workforce.

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK AWARD

Pictured is Candy Dixon, LCSW, SDSU School of Social Work director with Erin Zinn and Ayres family.

Pictured are the 5SW Director, Dr. Melissa Hodman and new Field Director, Amanda Lee, LCSW, with Maria Rodriguez-Rico.

Maria Rodriguez-Rico

Rodriguez-Rico is the director of the School of Social Work at SDSU. She is a licensed clinical social worker and a professor in the Department of Psychology.

The SAN DIEGO State University-Imperial Valley campus is located in the center of the Imperial Valley, close to the border with Mexico. The campus offers undergraduate and graduate programs in a variety of fields, including business, education, and the arts.

The campus is known for its diverse student body and its strong commitment to community service. SDSU-Ivy is committed to preparing students to be leaders in their communities and the world at large.

SDSU-Ivy offers a wide range of courses and programs, including business, education, and the arts.

The campus is home to the SDSU-Ivy Leadership Summit Conference, which brings together students from SDSU-Ivy and other universities.

The campus is also home to the SDSU-Ivy Ambassadors, a group of students who help promote the university's mission and values.

SDSU-Ivy is committed to providing students with a high-quality education in a supportive and welcoming environment.

SDSU-Ivy is a great place to be, and I highly recommend it to anyone looking for a challenging and rewarding experience.

Rockwood Elementary School students visit SDSU-Ivy Brawley Campus

BY CLARISSA TETARY

Rockwood Elementary School students visited the SDSU-Ivy Brawley Campus on September 5, 2017, as part of a partnership with the school district.

The students were divided into groups and each group was led by a SDSU-Ivy staff member.

They were shown around the campus and had the opportunity to ask questions about the university and its programs.

The students also had the opportunity to interact with SDSU-Ivy students and faculty.

SDSU-Ivy offers a wide range of programs and services, including business, education, and the arts.

The campus is home to the SDSU-Ivy Leadership Summit Conference, which brings together students from SDSU-Ivy and other universities.

The campus is also home to the SDSU-Ivy Ambassadors, a group of students who help promote the university's mission and values.

SDSU-Ivy is committed to providing students with a high-quality education in a supportive and welcoming environment.

SDSU-Ivy is a great place to be, and I highly recommend it to anyone looking for a challenging and rewarding experience.